Shri Ranbir Singh, Govt. Advocate for the petitioner.

Having heard Shri Ranbir Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner, the Court is not inclined to entertain this writ petition.

The termination of the respondent No.1 has been quashed for non-compliance of provisions contained in Section 25(F) of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947. It is not disputed that the said respondent No.1 had served under the petitioner from May 1990 to January 2000 when his services were terminated. It is further not disputed that only one month's salary was offered, which was obviously not in conformity with the provisions contained in Section 25(F) of the Act.

On the admitted position no error has been committed by the Labour Court, Bilaspur, in setting-aside the order of termination and ordering for reinstatement with back wages.

In view of above observations, the petition stands dismissed.
